rectors Saturday, to make arrangements

The Minor Lumber Co. river mill, which has been saving the Hodgson logs, was shut down Friday, owing to a disagreement between the owner of the logs and the company. It is possible the balance of the Hodgson logs may be saved at the Avery mill. The logs are those that were left on skids in Presque Isle county last winter, and are brought to town by the Alpina & Northern railway.
There were between three and four million feet of them.

On the evening preceding his departure from the city, Rev. John Munday was at the residence of A. N. Spratt, when about twenty members of Alpina Community, Knights Templar, showed the warm affection they had for him by presenting him with a valuable and beautiful Knight Templar charm. It is of gold, set with diamonds and a ruby cross. The presentation remarks were made by Sir Knight F. C. Holmes, and was feelingly responded to by Rev. Munday.

The tugs John Owen and Frank W. were off Thunder Bay Island last Wednesday night when stuck by the gale that evening. In the morning the raft and tugs had been carried up the lake beyond Middle Island, by the force of the gale, and from that time until their arrival in the bay Friday, they had to fight against a northerly wind. It was the most stormy trip they had experienced this season.
The raft was the largest towed to Alpina this year, and was boomed in Square Bay.

The Saginaw people who were on the steam yacht Waukena had an experience at Middle Island last Wednesday they will remember for a long time. They were enroute to Mackinac, and had come to anchor, as a gale was blowing. Their yacht commenced dragging anchor, and she lost her yawl boat. Signals were displayed and the Middle Island life saving crew came to their assistance. The yachting party were landed, came to Al-pina, and made the trip to Mackinac on a passenger steamer. The yacht was saved, and went to Mackinac after the gale was over.

On Monday evening, the 13th, a musical entertainment will be given by the well known Harold Jarvis, first tenor of the Detroit Presbyterian church, at the Opera House, under the auspices of and assisted by the Presbyterian church choir of this city. Prof. F. A. Apel, the noted pianist, will also take part. The Presbyterian choir is well known in Alpina for its excellent music, having pleased Alpina audiences frequently by their vocal work, and being aided by two such artists as are noted above, they are enabled to offer the people a musical entertainment that will rank with the best ever given in this city.

The Alpina County Savings Bank was first opened for business on the 10th of April of this year, and its first public report, made on July 18th, shows that the people of this city have deposited in the savings department the sum of $40,451.37.
We believe that the greater part of the savings deposits were made by persons of small means, and it speaks favorably for Alpina when her citizens in these days of business depression are able to save money and put it out at interest.
When the new bank was organized there were two old and reliable banks in the city, so that it had to seek its business, to a great extent, from a class who either spent their earnings or hid them in secret places. In addition to the savings deposits, the bank has commercial deposits to the amount of $22,152.39, and its entire resources, after doing a three months' business, amounted to $101,108.89.

During the past week there cleared from Alpina ten vessels loaded with forest products. The cargoes were shipped to the following ports:

Four cargoes of 1,475,000 feet of lumber to Cleveland, O.; two cargoes of 760,000 feet of lumber to Lorain, O.; one cargo of 350,000 feet of lumber to Toledo, O.; one cargo of 300,000 feet of lumber to Buffalo, N. Y.; one cargo of 300,000 feet of lumber and 300,000 lath to Erie, Pa., and one cargo of 10,500 railway ties to Chicago, Ill.

The total shipments for the week were 2,985,000 feet of lumber, 300,000 lath and 10,500 railway ties.

There are nine tents of the K. O. T. M.

members belonging, as shown by the last official report, is stated below:

228, Leeland 71, Champlain 97, Long Rapids 97, Maple Ridge 22, Oasineke 23,

The official report shows that no baking powder received an award over the Royal at the Chicago World's Fair.

The judges of awards on baking powder.
Dr. H. W. Wiley, writes that the claim of another company to having received the highest award is false; that no such award was given to it.

The Royal Baking Powder is the purest and strongest baking powder made, and has received the highest award at every fair, wherever exhibited in competition with others.

Considerable Money in Alpina.

There are three banks in Alpina—the Alpina National bank, the Alpina County Savings bank, and the private bank of the Constable Brothers. The first and last named were established in 1871, and the savings bank on April 16th, 1894.

Two of the banks are obliged to make reports at certain periods of the year and publish them, but the private bank is not by law compelled to publish a statement of its resources and liabilities.

The reports of the two banks were recently made public, and show that people of Alpina have a large sum of money saved and deposited in them, and a large part of it in drawing interest.

The National bank shows deposits to the amount of $377,461.00, and the Savings bank has deposits of $93,068.66, making the total deposits in the two banks amount to $470, 529.66.

It is certain that at date people of this city have at least half a million dollars of savings deposited in Alpina banks, and it certainly speaks well for a community in such times as these, that can show such a large surplus.

Exposure.

E. A. Westrope not only gave an interesting entertainment at the Opera House Friday evening, but he also did what he advised, and that was to fully expose the alleged spiritual work done by Anna Eva Fay the Sunday previous.

The lady had claimed that she was added by supernatural assistance, but Mr.
Westrope demonstrated that it was only trickery, and he not only did her tricks, but showed how simply they were done.
He also performed a variety of the spiritual feats and showed how they were done, such as the bag trick, Japanese box, catching money in the air, pillow, getting loose after being tied, etc. As to the scene where Miss Fay was tied to a post with her hands behind her back and then drawn up in a board, her handbuckles and made other noises, Mr.
Westrope plainly showed that she could move her hands sufficiently to do so. He was tied in the same manner and to the same post, and one of the committee who tied Miss Fay attended to tying Mr.
Westrope, and announced it was done just the same as on Sunday evening.

Guard News.

Captain W. D. Hitchcock has received general order No. 1 from the general commanding the State National Guard, and from it we glean the following:

In going to and coming from camp the senior officer present with troops will be held responsible for the good conduct of troops while en route. Guards will be placed at the doors of cars, and unless men will not be allowed outside of cars without permission of commanding officer.

The fatigue uniform will be worn to and from camp. Helmets and dress coats will be shipped with company baggage. Citizens' clothes and all other unnecessary baggage will be deposited with company commanders.

Company commanders will see that men are provided with crossed rifles, number of regiment and letter of company for fatigue caps.

No part of the state uniform will be worn by waiters, cooks, or any employee about camp.

Company commanders' attention is called to the necessity of teaching their men the respect due to officers in the matter of salutes when approaching or passing, and also the respect due the American flag.

Tossing in blankets and all unnecessary noises are positively forbidden.

Fatigue coats will be worn closely buttoned by men while absent from quarters.
Black shoes will be worn and will be well polished for guard mount and all ceremonies.

Company commanders will see that all needed supplies for camp are brought with their companies, or arrangements made to purchase the same on the grounds, as no excuses will be entertained for company quartermaster to make this an opportunity to go to Brighton.

Glad to get Home Safe.

Owing to stormy weather the excursion of the Sunday school children of the Baptist and M. E. churches was postponed, and took place Thursday. The schooner King and Chapelle had been chartered to carry the young people and their friends to the island, and the tug Ralph was to do the towing.

About nine o'clock Thursday morning the people had gathered on the Hitchcock wharf in great numbers, and excursionists, and when the King had already as many people as she could comfortably hold on her decks, the children of the two Sunday schools marched to the wharf, headed by a band. They numbered several hundred, and when added to the crowd already on the King and Chapelle, completely filled them. The crowd was so large that it was thought best to engage another vessel, and the Sunny Side was chartered, making three vessels in the Ralph's tow. The King presented an imposing sight as she was towed down the river. The foranale deck was covered with excursionists, the masts were densely packed with men, women and children, while the cabin roof was hid by humanity.
Boys were seated on the main boom and on the rigging. The Chapelle was also crowded, but the Sunny Side had but few, and was taken along in case of accident.
Life preservers were few in number, and there was only one yawl boat, and that
